Literature Circle Golden Rules

Groups are formed based on the selection of books.

Each group reads a different book.

Groups meet regularly for consistent time periods.

Students rotate through the roles.

Students run their own discussions and remain on task.

Each student takes a turn within their group.

The teacher will facilitate and move among the groups.

Students use their notes to guide their discussions.

Everyone is a valued member.

Students act responsibly, do their reading selections, ask good questions, construct meaning and be respectful while group members are sharing.

Discussion Director: Your role is to think of questions for the group members to discuss. It is important to ask questions that promote thinking. Avoid from asking questions that require the responder to say yes or know. You need a minimum of 5 questions.

A good strategy is to ask questions like:

Why do you think..... What does (event/happening) remind you of and why?..... Why do you think the author..... Describe..... What is another way that..... Predict why..... Compare (character) to..... Do you agree with..... What do you think will happen.... What were you thinking when.....

Literature Circle Role

Word Wizard

Your job:

Your job is to search for words in this section of the book that you (or others in your group) might not know. After you find challenging words, tell where they are used in the story and find the definitions.

When you meet with your group:

First, share the challenging word you found. Show them where it is in the story. Then, have each person try to predict the definition. After everyone has shared their definitions, you can tell them the real meaning of the word.
